Delores Kyllingstad Marries Carlton Newcomb on Feb. 22

Miss Delores Kyllingstad of Harbor City, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Kyllingstad of Orange approached the altar in the Western Avenue Baptist Church on the arm of her father last Saturday afternoon at 4 p.m. to become the bride of Carlton Newcomb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Newcomb, 3305 Danaha Ave., Torrance.

The wedding gown was of Chantilly lace over gathered net and satin. The floor length gown had a bouffant skirt, and a fitted lace bodice. The illusion bridal veil fell from a fluted net headpiece and the bride carried a bouquet consisting of a white orchid encircled by white gardenias.

Mrs. Donald Davis was the matron of honor. She wore an aqua brocaded taffeta and chiffon gown and carried a heart shaped bouquet of yellow carnations and rosebuds.

Bridesmaids were Misses Dorothy Alvarez, Judy Mork, and Joan Kretschmar. They wore identical bouffant gowns of yellow brocaded taffeta and chiffon and carried heart-shaped bouquets of aqua carnations and yellow rosebuds.

Preceding the ceremony, the candles were lighted by Misses Janice Green and Jeanette Cooper. Miss Green was in melba chiffon and Miss Cooper in poudre blue.

Miss Shirley Washburn sang "Always," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." She was accompanied by Mrs. Dorothy

McDonald, who also played the wedding marches.

Larry Kyllingstad, brother of the bride, stood as best man and Terry Holkestad, Lou Stewart and Vernon Halvorson were ushers.

The Rev. Wayne Kyllingstad, also a brother of the bride, officiated at the marriage ceremony.

A reception was held at the church and guests were registered by Miss Linda Bowman. Assisting at the reception were Mmes. W. Kyllingstad, T. Holkestad and E. Watkins.

The couple spent a honeymoon in Palm Springs and are now establishing a Torrance home.

The bride was graduated from Narbonne High winter class of 1958.

Her husband, a Deming High School graduate, is employed at the Northrup Aeronautical Institute.

Here for the wedding were the bride's grandfather, O. Halvorson of Valley City, N.D.
